I AM AN INDIVIDUAL

I'm just one of many. What possible difference do I make, anyway?

Sometimes I feel like a nobody — a non-person — especially when I need help with algebra! . . . or maybe, when I don't have a date for THE BIG EVENT.

My name isn't important. What is important is that I am ME . . . but I am YOU!

I am every individual at Heritage Prep and —

THRU THE SPIRIT RING

SEASON!

A Prophecy Comes True . . .

After a disappointing 0-10 '81 season, THE PRAETORIANS and their fans promised a bigger, stronger, more aggressive, WINNING team for 1982.

On the road and at home, THE PRAETORIANS proved to be tough and competitive, losing only three games out of a tough ten game schedule. Of those three losses, two were to much larger 2 A schools, Florida Air and Melbourne Central Catholic whose larger squads and more depth, overpowered the Purple. The remaining loss was to Frostproof, District Five champs.

Heart stopping victories were recorded over Wymore Tech (2A), Trinity Prep, Bronson, Rolling Green, Shorecrest, and best of all Lake Highland, the Praetorians' biggest rival.

After last year's losses, victories were sweet.

Sweeter still was seventh place in state rankings . . . A first for Heritage.

First Team All State — 1982

By being named to First Team All State, Senior Kent Stough makes Heritage football history. He is the first Heritage player in the school's 13 year existence to be named to a first team position. Great going, Kent! You gave us alot of exciting moments!

3 Orlando players named to Class A all-state team

Brian Butler of Orlando Trinity Prep, David Rider of Orlando Lake Highland Prep and Kent Stough of Orlando Heritage Prep never got the opportunity to participate in the Class A high school football playoffs.

But these three did enough to ensure their selection to Florida Sports-writers Association's first-team all-state — a team composed of seven players from state champion Belle Glade Glades Day and runner-up Baker County.

This season Lake Highland lost to Heritage Prep, 12-7, when Heritage was seventh in the state, and Ruby knows one of the reasons.

"Kent Stough is a tough, hard-working athlete," said Ruby, who remembers Stough best for snuffing out two reverses from his defensive back spot.

HOOPING IT UP

Basketball is Heritage's most enjoyed indoor sport. Every game provided Praetorian fans with cardiac-arresting-down-to-the-wire excitement. Though new at his job, Coach Rudy Webber understood what to do in critical situations and more than once THE PURPLE pulled a game out of the fire. The PRAETORIANS played aggressively and well. Speed and sure-shooting and skillful ball handling brought the PRAETORIAN CAGERS a very successful season. BRAVO!! Basketball is alive and well and thriving on the Heritage campus!

For sheer excitement, chills, thrills and spills, there is nothing under the Florida sun like a Lady Praetorian basketball game! Fighting for the ball, making impossible shots, winning in cliff-hanger situations . . . that's OUR LADIES! They may have that "I'm fragile -put-me-up-on-a-pedestal" look, but underneath they are tough and ready to take on the most challenging opponent. Under the capable guidance of Coach Ross Riley, THE LADY PRAETORIANS finished a very successful after playing a rough Class A schedule.

A HERITAGE BASKETBALL TRADITION COMES TO AN END . . .

Karen has distinguished herself in a very special way. As she graduates, she becomes the first student ever to have perfect attendance in 12 years of school at Heritage.

Debbie, too, has set an enviable record. By scoring 46 points against Desisto on February 11 of this year, she broke the girls' Class A scoring record for this district.

Goodbye, Karen and Debbie. Thank you for all the exciting moments you gave Heritage fans!

Thanks for the memories!!

AT THE CRACK OF THE BAT . . .

Heritage students have never really thought much about baseball. It was just there . . . something to keep the football team in shape for spring practice. This year was different though, with alot more interest shown in America's Pastime. Maybe it was just spring . . . maybe it was 'cause someone's favorite fella was wearing Heritage colors . . . maybe it was something to relax and enjoy . . . sort of the calm before the storm of football jamborees and graduation activities. Anyhow, Heritage baseball came into its own this spring and the Praetorians finished a respectable season with a great feeling of achievement and accomplishment.

Part of this terrific feeling came because the team took pride in knowing that they had earned all of their equipment, hats and sharp, new, silver gray uniforms by the sweat of their collective brows!

Bravo! Power To the PRAETORIANS of 1983!!

OUR TEAM IS ON ITS WAY.

UNFORGETTABLE . . . SCENES FROM THE SEASONS

"I never thought it would end like this"

Senior Quarterback, Randy Eisenhardt watches his teammates hold off the Bulldogs of Bell High School as the last game of the season comes to an end. Before leaving the game with a leg injury, Eisenhardt scored the lone touchdown of the night, giving the Praetorians another victory in an already successful season.

Watching the clock tick away his high school football career, Eisenhardt spent the entire second half on the bench. "It's strange," he said afterward, "I never expected it to end this way . . . on the sidelines . . . that's the part that hurts . . . not the leg."

Because of their many accomplishments during their HERITAGE years, these SENIORS have earned a spot in the HERITAGE HALL OF FAME.

SOUVENIR

*souvenir, so-vener, n. (Fr., from
L. subvenire, to occur to mind.)
That which reminds of revives
the memory of anything; a keepsake.*
